MB ChB, PGCertHBE, FRCS (T&O), MD (Res)
Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon

Special interest:

Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip (DDH) & Hip Preservation Surgery

About Miss Blakey

Miss Caroline Blakey is a Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon specialising in Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip (DDH), paediatric and adolescent hip disorders, and hip preservation surgery. She holds substantive consultant posts at Sheffield Children's Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and Doncaster and Bassetlaw Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (Doncaster Royal Infirmary), where she manages complex paediatric and young adult hip conditions, general paediatric orthopaedics and trauma, and selected adult hip preservation cases.

She completed higher surgical training in Trauma & Orthopaedics in the South Yorkshire Deanery, followed by dedicated paediatric orthopaedics, hip arthroscopy and hip preservation fellowships in the UK, Australia and Switzerland. In 2014 she was awarded an MD(Res) from St George's, University of London for her thesis on Anterior Instability of the Hip.

Her clinical practice combines high-volume paediatric orthopaedics, complex hip preservation work, trauma, and lower limb reconstruction, underpinned by a strong academic and teaching portfolio.

Clinical, Research and Medico-Legal Expertise

Miss Blakey's clinical work covers the full spectrum of orthopaedic areas including:

- Paediatric and adolescent hip pathologies and reconstruction:
  - Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip (DDH)
  - Hip instability and anterior capsular laxity
  - Femoroacetabular impingement and periacetabular osteotomy
  - Hip preservation procedures (arthroscopy and open surgery)
- General paediatric orthopaedics and trauma injuries

Miss Blakey holds an MD(Res) in hip instability and has published widely in paediatric orthopaedics, hip preservation and trauma. She is an Associate Principal Investigator for national clinical trials and has completed advanced fellowships in paediatric orthopaedics and hip preservation. She plays a key role in training future surgeons, serves as an FRCS (T&O) question writer, and is a member of major UK orthopaedic societies.

Expert Witness & Report Preparation Experience

Miss Blakey has been preparing medico-legal reports since 2022 and completes over 60 reports per year, including causation, condition & prognosis, and breach of duty assessments in paediatric and young adult orthopaedics.

She is instructed by both Claimant and Defendant firms (approximately 80/20) and is experienced in cases involving DDH, paediatric hip disorders, traumatic and limb injuries, and orthopaedic surgical management. Her reports are CPR Part 35 compliant, clear, evidence-based and delivered within practical turnaround times.
